COMPLAINT

Civil Action No. 24-2000

Plaintiff JULIE A. SU, Acting Secretary of Labor, United States Department of Labor (the “Acting Secretary”), by and through undersigned counsel, brings this action under sections 16(c) and 17 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. (“the Act” or “the FLSA”), alleging that Defendants violated sections 7, 11(c), 15(a)(2) and 15(a)(5) of the Act, to recover back wages, liquidated damages, and to enjoin acts and practices which violate the provisions of the FLSA, and to obtain other appropriate relief.

Defendants, who operate a commercial real estate business in New York, New York, have willfully violated the FLSA by failing to pay certain employees employed as personal drivers the applicable overtime premiums for hours worked in excess of forty each week. Defendants further failed to keep accurate and/or complete time and pay records for those employees. From on or about October 5, 2019 through at least October 29, 2022 (the “relevant time period”), Defendants did not pay proper overtime to the employees who typically and regularly worked more than 40 hours per week and did not keep records of all hours worked by the employees and all wages paid to the employees.

32. The business activities of the Defendants, as described herein, are related and performed through unified operation or common control for a common business purpose and constitute an enterprise within the meaning of section 3(r) of the Act.

33. Defendants have employed and are employing employees as personal drivers, including those employees listed in Exhibit A, in the activities of an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, including the employment of employees that handle, sell, or otherwise work on goods or materials that have been moved in or produced for commerce by any person, such as motor vehicles.

34. The enterprise has an annual gross volume of sales made or business done in an amount not less than $500,000 at all times relevant to this Complaint.

35. Therefore, the employees are employed in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of section 3(s)(1)(A) of the Act.

Defendants' Pay Practices

36. During the relevant time period, Defendants employed approximately six employees as personal drivers.

37. During the relevant time period, Defendants paid their non-exempt personal driver employees weekly salaries ranging from $1,250 to $1,654.

38. During the relevant time period, many of Defendants' personal driver employees typically worked between approximately 41 and 60 hours in a workweek.

Defendants Failed to Pay Proper Overtime

39. During the relevant period, Defendants did not pay their non-exempt personal driver employees the required premium of one and one-half times employees' regular rates for hours worked in excess of forty in a workweek.

40. For all workweeks, Defendants compensated their non-exempt personal driver employees at their flat weekly salary regardless of the amount of hours worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek.

41. As a result of the practices described herein, Defendants failed to compensate at least six former and current employees for work performed in workweeks longer than forty hours at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which they were employed.

Defendants Failed to Keep Adequate and Complete Records

42. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to make, keep and/or preserve adequate and accurate records, including their personal driver employees' actual total daily and weekly hours worked, and overtime hours worked, as prescribed by the regulations at 29 C.F.R. Part 516.

43. Defendants were required to make, keep, and preserve records of the persons employed by them, including, but not limited to, total hours worked each workday and workweek for a period of three years and make them available for inspection by the Department of Labor upon request. Therefore, during the relevant time period, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employees' hours worked as required.

Defendants' Actions Were Willful

44. Defendants were previously investigated by the U.S. Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division ("Wage and Hour Division") in or about September 2019 for failure to pay proper overtime and failure to keep records of hours worked by their personal driver employees.

45. The prior Wage and Hour Division investigation revealed that Defendants failed to pay proper overtime to six non-exempt personal driver employees during the period from on or about July 17, 2017 through October 5, 2019.

46. Defendants agreed to pay $76,618.57 in unpaid overtime compensation to the six employees.

47. As a result of the prior Wage and Hour Division investigation, Defendants were aware in or about September 2019 that they were required to pay their personal driver employees overtime when they worked more than forty hours a week and to keep records of all hours worked by the employees.

48. Accordingly, Defendants' failure to pay overtime and failure to make, keep and/or preserve records of hours worked during the relevant time period was willful.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Sections 7(a) and 15(a)(2) of the FLSA, Failure to Pay Overtime

49. The Secretary incorporates by reference and realleges the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 48.

50. Defendants have willfully violated sections 7 and 15(a)(2) of the Act by employing at least six employees in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, for workweeks longer than forty hours, as prescribed in Section 7 of the Act, without compensating the employees for their employment in excess of the prescribed hours at rates not less than one and one-half times the regular rates at which they were employed.

51. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for unpaid overtime compensation and an equal amount in liquidated damages pursuant to section 16(c) of the Act or, in the event liquidated damages are not awarded, unpaid overtime compensation and prejudgment interest on said unpaid overtime compensation under section 17 of the Act.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Sections 11(c) and 15(a)(5) of the FLSA, Recordkeeping

53. Defendants have willfully violated the provisions of sections 11(c) and 15(a)(5) of the Act, in that Defendants failed to make, keep, and/or preserve adequate and accurate records, including employees' actual daily and weekly hours worked, overtime hours worked, and total weekly wages paid, as prescribed by the regulations issued and found at 29 CFR Part 516.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, cause having been shown, Plaintiff respectfully prays for judgment against Defendants providing the following relief:

(1) An injunction issued pursuant to section 17 of the Act permanently restraining Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, and those persons in active concert or participation with Defendants, from violating the provisions of sections 7, 11(c), 15(a)(2), and 15(a)(5) of the Act;

(3) In the event liquidated damages are not awarded, for an injunction issued pursuant to section 17 of the Act restraining Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, and those persons in active concert or participation with Defendants, from withholding the amount of unpaid overtime compensation found due Defendants' employees, and prejudgment interest computed at the underpayment rate established by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 6621;

(4) An order compelling Defendants to reimburse the Secretary for the costs of this action; and
